Award Category

Community Care, Guardian I.D.A

Awarded to a pharmacy owner who has demonstrated a positive impact in their local community through charitable work.

Award Winner

Tony Boghossian - Bell Pharmacy (Ottawa, Ontario)

Announcement

Tony Boghossian at Bell pharmacy is a role model and recognized leader in his community with over 35 years of experience. Tony was featured in the CBC news for being one of the first pharmacies in the Ottawa area to address the opioid crisis with his commitment to counsel and dispense naloxone kits. He works closely with his local community centre and was featured in Ottawa Sun for helping new immigrants to Canada by offering temporary living accommodations. Tony is an admired leader and a great ambassador for community care as demonstrated through his active involvement, charitable acts and positive impact on the health and wellness of those in his community. Please join me in congratulating Tony on this community care achievement award.
